SAS Coaches Code of Ethics

I hereby pledge to live up to my commitment as a St. Alphonsus coach by following the Coaches Code of Ethics:

I will place the emotional and physical well being of my players ahead of a personal desire to win.

I will treat each player as an individual, remembering the large range of emotional and physical development for the same age group.

I promise to review and practice basic first aid principles needed to treat injuries of my players.

I will do my best to organize practices that are fun and challenging for all my players.

I will lead by example in demonstrating fair play and sportsmanship to all my players.

I will provide a sports environment for my team that is free of drugs, tobacco, and alcohol, and I will refrain from their use at all youth sports events.

I will be knowledgeable in the rules of each sport that I coach, and I will teach these rules to my players.

I will use those coaching techniques appropriate for all of the skills that I teach.

I will remember that I am a youth sports coach, and that the game is for children and not adults.

I have read the SAS Athletic Handbook as well as the SAS Coaches Code of Ethics. If selected, I agree to manage my team to the best of my ability and will abide by the general guidelines in the SAS Athletic Handbook. If selected, I agree to abide by the SAS Coaches Code of Ethics. I understand that it's my responsibility to chose qualified assistant coaches and that I'm ultimately responsible for their conduct. I also agree that all of the information contained on this application is factual.
