Principal's Message

Our Hornet Run was a HUGE success! I am so thankful to everyone who pledged donations to make this such a successful fundraiser. Mrs. Boudreaux did a wonderful job organizing this event. Thank you to our great volunteers who helped with counting the pledges and working the stations. St. Alphonsus School is truly blessed! Stay tuned to our website for pictures from the day's activities.

Red Ribbon Week has been great, too. Thanks to Mrs. Ashford and Mrs. Jones for organizing the fun activities. Your generous donations to our food bank and socks for St. Vincent de Paul were appreciated.

Have a great weekend! Cindy Ryals

Kids in Ministry

Kids in Ministry is looking for parents and middle school students to volunteer with the Halloween Carnival on October 29th. If you are interested email Taylor Thompson at taylorrethompson@gmail.com

Fun Dress Day

The next Fun Dress Day will be on Wednesday, November 9th. Each student is permitted to wear a Thanksgiving color shirt (orange, brown, red, or yellow), provided they aided with all the general clothing provisions of the Spirit Dress Policy stated in the handbook. Fun Dress is optional. However, to participate, a donation of one good item from the list below is requested.

PK3 & PK4 = Tuna cans
K = Peas
1st & 2nd = Corn
3rd & 4th = Green Beans
5th & 6th = Mac and Cheese
