Counselor's CORNER

December 2025

Ms. Morgan Bueche

A Note from Ms. Morgan

How are we already halfway through December? This year is flying by! I am grateful that I get to spend each day with your children and help them grow socially and emotionally. The past few weeks have been especially fun and special, seeing the joy of Christmas through their eyes.

In our guidance classes, pre-K, kindergarten, and first grade students have been learning how to recognize their friends' feelings. Second and third grade classes have been all about kindness and what it means to be a good friend. Our fourth and fifth graders, we have been working on communication and problem-solving skills. And in middle school, we have been learning about cognitive distortions and practicing positive thinking.

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year, Hornet family!
